BOYS' FOOTBALL TOURNAMENT

Last Saturday, the Rushcliffe Schools FA tournament took place here at St. Peter's in glorious autumnal sunshine. Below are our boys, looking relaxed between matches, in their press conference. Throughout all of their mini-matches, they collectively put in an excellent performance, defending stoutly, pulling off acrobatic saves and scoring handsome goals. Their group was incredibly tight, with any of the teams looking like contenders to reach the semi-finals, but on this occasion, they narrowly missed out. Regardless, they had a fantastic morning, clearly enjoying representing their school and playing for each other. Football was the winner!

This Saturday, it is the turn of our Girls teams to compete...

All donations make a real difference to people's lives.
